

Reference Sires - Quidam De Revel

His sire Jalisco B together with I Love You and Galoubet one of the three most distinguished stallion sons of Almé Z and who all played a leading role in the international sport of showjumping. Quidam's dam Dirka also won various international showjumping events under Nelson Pessoa/BRA, also produced the showjumpers Orka de Revel and Paprika de Revel (both by Sans Souci), the CSIO winner Vallon Rouge (by Onyx IV) as well as the advanced showjumper Aiglou Rouge (private stallion NED by Narcos II). The damsire Nankin produced for German breeding the stallion Nordenstern (private stallion Oldenburg) and the dam of the well-known sire San Fernando, who won several Grand Prix events under Franke Sloothaak. The damline also brought forth one of the most influential Selle Francais sires, Uriel, who made a name for himself in Germany through his sons Quiriell II J (private stallion Bavaria) and Uriel de St. Lô (Schwaiganger state stallion).

Quidam had his first international wins and placings with Hervé Godignon/FRA. At the 1992 Olympics in Barcelona/ESP the combination won the team bronze medal, and ended up fourth place in the individual placings. In 1991, the year previous they had already taken fourth place with the French team and sixth in the individual contest at the European Championship in La Baule/FRA. They came fifth in the World Cup final in Göteborg/SWE that year.

In 1993 Quidam de Revel moved to Denmark, where he won the Scandinavian Young Riders Championship under Charlotte Velin. Under Thomas Velin he was victorious at numerous events, including the 1997 Hanover Grand Prix, which is the highest endowed indoor showjumping event in the world, the 1998 Grand Prix in Helsinki/FIN and at the Aarhus Masters/DEN. The quoted life winnings sum refers to his successes at international level. It adds up to more than Euro 500,000 in all.

Quidam de Revel has numerous approved sons that are international competition horses, such as Guidam/Eric van der Vleuten/BEL, Godsend de Reverdy/Thomas Velin/DEN, Diabolo du Parc II/Ludovic Leygue/FRA, Désir du Chateau/Philippe Rozier/FRA, Quite Easy I/Perter Eriksson/SWE.
